Alarm Clock with Wireless Charging

Features & Benefits

- Say hello to the i-box Slick, a minimalist bedside clock that's all about practicality. It's not just an alarm clock, but also a wireless charger that supports fast charging. With dual alarms and a dimmable LED display, it's designed to meet all your bedside needs without taking up much space. A perfect combination of straightforward functionality and modern convenience. Its sleek design complements any décor, and its practical features make it a must-have addition to your bedside.
- A built-in wireless charging pad means you can charge your smartphone without fumbling for cables.
- Set two separate alarms to accommodate your lifestyle, whether it's for weekdays, weekends, or varying schedules.
- With its minimal footprint, the Slick fits perfectly on your nightstand without cluttering your space.
- Adjust the LED display's brightness to suit your preference, making it easy to read day or night.
